PRESS NOTE

INAUGURATION OF THE INDIAN REPUBLIC

CELEBRATIONS ON THE 26TH AND 27TH JANUARY 1950

As part of the nation-wide programme of celebrating the inauguration of the Indian Republic, arrangements were made in Mysore State to observe this unique function in a fitting and worthy manner. The 26th and 27th January were observed as holidays throughout the State. Flags were flown on all Government buildings as well as a large number of private dwellings. Large-scale illuminations were carried out wherever possible by Government, by local bodies and by private persons.

On the 26th January, a Special Durbar was held at the Palace, Mysore, to which all prominent citizens, representatives of the peasantry, the Harijans, the Labour Organisations and the Press were invited. At 10-15 A. M., His Highness the Maharaja took his seat in the Durbar Hall and read the Proclamation issued by the Government of India declaring the inauguration of the Indian Republic. This was followed by an affirmation by His Highness on entering the office of Rajpramukh of Mysore State. A salute of 21 guns was fired from the Palace Battery and the Rajpramukh's Flag was unfurled in the courtyard of the Palace. The Chief Justice, ~~the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly~~, the Ministers, the Judges and the Chief Commandant of the Mysore State Forces were sworn in as provided in the Constitution of India. As the Chief Minister was unable to be present at the Swearing-in-Ceremony at the Palace, owing to illness, the oaths of office and secrecy were administered to him at Bangalore. In the afternoon, His Highness the Maharaja went out on a State Drive from the Palace to the Government House where a parade of troops was held. The National Flag was unfurled at the Ceremonial Parade. In the evening, there was a Garden Party at Chamundi Gymkhana at which about 2,000 persons were present.

At Bangalore, a ceremonial Parade was held on 26-1-1950 at the Race Course Grounds under the auspices of the Bangalore Sub-Area. Brig. Habibullah of Bangalore Sub-Area took the Salute. The Corporation of Bangalore had arranged a programme of public meeting in the afternoon preceded by the unfurling of the National Flag in the morning. At other District and Taluk Headquarters, arrangements were made for celebrating the event on the lines of the programme in Bangalore and Mysore Cities. Educational institutions had arranged for sports and competitions.

On the afternoon of the 27th January, His Highness the Maharaja moved into Bangalore and gave a Garden Party at the Palace at which more than 2,000 invitees were entertained.

As an act of clemency on this occasion, the Government of Mysore ordered the release of prisoners and remission of sentences as in other parts of the country.

The celebrations throughout the State in connection with the inauguration of the Republic were marked by great rejoicing on the part of the people.
